Wooburn Singers was founded in 1967 by the late Richard Hickox, and has earned a reputation as one of the UK's leading amateur mixed voice choirs. The full choir has some 60 singers and covers a wide and varied repertoire, giving four or five concerts a year in the South Buckinghamshire area. For more information , please see the choir website at <https://www.wooburnsingers.org.uk/>

The Norwich Tour Choir is 25 selected singers and is directed by Jeremy Rowe

There will be different programmes in each of the three venues, selected from:

Christus factus est	Anerio
Christus factus est	Bruckner
Salve Regina	Poulenc
Remember not O Lord our offences	Purcell
Ave verum	Mozart
Ave verum	Verdi
Bogoroditse Devo	Rachmaninoff
O quam gloriosum	Victoria
The blue bird	Stanford
Never weather-beaten sail	Parry
The shower	Elgar
Drop, drop slow tears	Gibbons
As torrents in summer	Elgar
Linden Lea	Vaughan Williams
Stars of the summer night	Hatton
Autumn leaves	arr. McGonigal

Thanks to the clergy and staff at all three venues for allowing us to sing in these glorious churches, and for helping with arrangements. Thanks also to Charlotte and James Fowler (who now live in Norwich and are ex-members of Wooburn Singers)
